AMPOSTA

PRIMARY

- ◆ Tools 2.0 for multilingual and multicultural projects.
Margarida Jordan. Dept. d'Educació.
This conference will offer a practical vision on the use of Web 2.0 and its tools available for teaching English framed on multicultural and multilingual projects.
- ◆ Speaking in the Primary Classroom.
Angela McClenaghan. Oxford.
In this session we will be looking at how to help our students develop their speaking skills. We will examine the progression from receptive to productive skills and ways to introduce these skills and prepare our students to be able to participate orally. The emphasis will be on practical, easy to manage activities.
- ◆ Crossing the curricular boundary.
Katharine Scott. Richmond.
In this session we will examine how we can integrate a cross curricular approach and the knowledge domain of the English language whilst keeping sight of the basic task of teaching English.
- ◆ Talk & Play with the Baby Triplets.
Pepita Subirà. Pearson.
The aim of this workshop is to present some samples of the stories, songs and games in a DVD and workbook plus some ideas on how to use this material in class and at home.
- ◆ English, please! (Art in English).
Alexandra Canals Butcher. CRP.
In this session this teacher will share her own experience at using English in the Arts & Crafts Class. From 1st to 6th of primary.

SECONDARY

- ◆ Blogs.
Ester Boldú Grau. Macmillan.
This session will introduce you to some first-rate teaching blogs that offer English language practice for Secondary and Batxillerat students.
- ◆ Interactive Comic Theatre: Clever Pants Megamix.
Clever Pants Productions.
This 60 minute interactive comic theatre in 100% English has been specially designed for this event. The MEGAMIX comprises scenes from our repertoire for PRIMARY, SECONDARY, BATXILLERAT and ADULT students.
- ◆ Tried and Tested – Practical Teaching Ideas for Intermediate + Teens.
Neeraj Dhanani & Chris Roland. British Council.
A collection of practical Classroom activities which are fun and communicative. The activities are varied and aim to cater for classes of mixed ability. As the title suggests all of these activities have been used successfully with our own young learner classes.
- ◆ "Architeachecture". Using non-fiction reading to build up knowledge.
Judit González. Cambridge.
As the world is getting more and more digitalized teachers need to find ways into which books become not only a reliable tool to learn English, but also build up the students' knowledge of other subjects.
- ◆ Managing your Class.
Tom Maguire. APAC.
The goal of this workshop is to walk you through your normal lesson cycle using powerful management techniques at each of the stages: gathering attention, presenting and supervising practice.
