The Panel of Judges is entitled to ask for assistance from external experts on the submitted papers.

The verdict of the Panel of Judges will be final. ACAM will announce it on <http://www.acam.cat> ten days before the Jornades Fontserè 2009, and SMC will hand the prize during the final session of these very same Jornades.

If, according to the Panel of Judges, no submitted paper is worth the prize, this may be declared unawarded. In such case, ACAM will be entitled to commission a paper on meteorology for the same amount of the award.

The awarded paper will be introduced by its author(s) during the odd-numbered call of the Jornades Eduard Fontserè immediately following the awarding. Moreover, besides, they will supply an abstract of it, that may be published by ACAM both in its original and translated languages (Catalan, English, Spanish).
