

Submission of manuscripts

The papers are published in the collection where they are originally unpublished WP, except otherwise explicitly agreed upon between the ICPS and authors.

The originals are sent to the email con.icps@diba.cat, in Windows Microsoft Word format (.doc or .docx).

Texts are accepted in Catalan, Spanish, French, English and Italian, and also published in digital format on the website of ICPS in the language it was received.

Along with the original, a brief biography of the author/s is attached, not exceeding 150 words per person, which establishes the institutional affiliation.

2. Edition

Basic editing rules

3. Selection and Evaluation Procedure

Texts received are subject to internal and external evaluation by specialists on the subject.

The assessment reports take into account, among other factors:

- a) The originality and novelty of the item in the field
- b) The coherence and structure of the article
- c) The methodological soundness and consistency
- d) The correctness, range of sources and bibliography

If assessments recommend changes to the original publication of the article, it is conditional upon acceptance by the author of the changes that must be completed.

4. Communication to the author

Within three months the authors will communicate the results of the evaluation to the Evaluation Commission and the decision by the ICPS, as well as suggestions and/or modifications made to the text for publication.

5. Copyrights

The authors of the text retain the copyright.
