

ABERTIS INFRAESTRUCTURAS, S.A.ORDINARY GENERAL SHAREHOLDERS' MEETING

The Board of Directors, according to its resolutions dated 9th March 2021, has decided to convene the Ordinary General Shareholders' Meeting on the 20th day of April 2021 at 13:00 pm, at Abertis Infraestructuras, S.A.'s registered offices, Paseo de la Castellana 39, Madrid, on first and single call.

The Board considers that the best way to ensure that shareholders can exercise their rights, with full guarantees for their health and for the health of others, is to responsibly recommend: (i) not to physically attend the General Meeting and to follow the development of the General Meeting by means of the full live broadcast on the corporate website (www.abertis.com), and (ii) that they exercise their attendance and voting rights through the mechanisms made available to them through the telematic means described in this announcement and on the Company's website.

The Ordinary General Shareholders' Meeting will be held under the following:

AGENDA

One.- Approval of the individual and consolidated annual accounts and their respective management reports (financial information) corresponding to the 2020 financial year.

Two.- Approval of the non-financial information included in the consolidated management report corresponding to the financial year, closed on 31 December 2020.

Three.- Approval of the proposed application of result corresponding to 2020 financial year and distribution of available reserves:

3.1.- Approval of the proposed application of result corresponding to 2020 financial year.

3.2.- Distribution of available reserves.

Four.- Approval of the management of the Board of Directors during the 2020 financial year.

Five.- Amendment of article 14 of the Articles of Association to regulate the attendance and participation in the General Meeting of Shareholders by on-line telematic means.

Six.- Delegation to the Board of Directors of the faculty to issue bonds, obligations and other fixed-income securities, convertible and/or exchangeable for shares in the Company or exchangeable for shares in other companies, as well as warrants and any other financial instruments giving the right to acquire newly issued shares in the Company, for a period of five years and with the power, where appropriate, to increase the share capital and to exclude pre-emptive subscription rights.

Seven.- Delegation of powers to formalize all the resolutions adopted by the General Shareholders' Meeting.

SUPPLEMENT TO THE CALL

In accordance with article 172 of the Law on Capital Companies, shareholders representing at least five percent of the share capital may request that a supplement to this call be published, including one or more items on the agenda. The exercise of this right must be made by means of reliable notification that must be received at the registered office, Corporate Governance department (Paseo de la Castellana, 39, Madrid), within five days following the publication of this call.

RIGHT TO INFORMATION

In accordance with the provisions of Article 272 of the Law on Capital Companies, from the date of publication of this notice of meeting, any shareholder may examine at the registered office (Paseo de la Castellana, 39, Madrid) and may request to the Company to obtain immediately and free of charge, the documents being submitted to the Meeting and reports thereon. This request may refer to the individual and consolidated accounts, management reports that, where appropriate, include the mandatory non-financial information and the auditors' reports or all other legal documentation concerning the General Meeting. The Annual Corporate Governance Report for financial year 2020 will also be made available to the shareholders.

In attention to the limitations in force from time to time arising from the situation generated by COVID-19, it is recommended that shareholders who wish to obtain a copy of all or some of the documents submitted to the Meeting, send their request by e-mail to jgo2021@abertis.com.

In accordance with the provisions of Article 197 of the Law on Capital Companies and in the Company's Articles of Association, until the seventh day prior to the day on which it is planned to hold the Shareholders' General Meeting being convened, shareholders (attending personally or remotely) may, in writing or orally during the meeting, may pose questions and/or request any information or clarifications as they deem necessary from the Board of Directors regarding the items on the agenda.

Shareholders are informed that, for further information regarding the method of exercising their rights in relation to the Meeting, they can contact the Corporate Governance department of Abertis, by telephone on +34 93.230.50.00 or by email (jgo2021@abertis.com).

RIGHT OF ATTENDANCE, REPRESENTATION AND VOTE

1.- Right of attendance.

Shareholders may attend the Meeting, physically or by telematic means, if they hold, individually or collectively, 1,000 or more shares that, at least five days prior to the date of the Meeting, have been recorded in the registers of the Company "Sociedad de Gestión de los Sistemas de Registro, Compensación y Liquidación de Valores, S.A." (Iberclear) and entities affiliated thereto.

a) Shareholders who wish to attend physically the Meeting shall:

- Inform the Company, by sending a written notice addressed to the registered office, Corporate Governance Department, Abertis Infraestructuras, S.A., Paseo de la Castellana, 39 Madrid, or to the following e-mail address jgo2021@abertis.com, 48 hours before the holding of a General Meeting, in order to be able to comply with the appropriate social distancing measures recommended due to the health crisis caused by COVID-19, in accordance with which the aforementioned General Meeting will be held.
- Attend the Meeting with the corresponding attendance card issued by the entities affiliated to Iberclear or by the Company with the National Identity Card or any other official document, in force, generally accepted for these purposes to prove their identity.

b) Shareholders who wish to attend the meeting by telematic means shall do so in accordance with the provisions of the following section regarding the exceptional measures adopted to facilitate the telematic attendance.

2.- Representation.

In accordance with article 184.2 of the Law on Capital Companies, each shareholder with voting rights in the General Meeting may be represented by any person, complying with the requirements and formalities required by the Articles of Association and by the Law on Capital Companies.

Each shareholder entitled to vote at the General Meeting may be represented by any person and the proxy may be evidenced:

(i) In writing:

To authorise their representation in writing, shareholders shall send to the Corporate Governance department (Paseo de la Castellana, 39, Madrid) the document by which they authorise their representation by proxy or the attendance card for the Meeting issued by the depositary entities, duly signed, and with the section containing the authorisation for conferring representation filled in, and which includes the request for instructions for the exercise of the right to vote and states the direction of the vote to be taken by the proxy for each of the items on the agenda.

ii) By electronic means:

Shareholders who are entitled to attend may delegate their representation to a shareholder or to any natural or legal person by means of electronic communication prior to the Meeting. To make use of this faculty, the delegating shareholder must have an electronic national identity card or a recognized, valid and in force electronic certificate, in accordance with the provisions of Law 6/2020, of November 11, regulating certain aspects of reliable electronic services.

Shareholders with the right of attendance who wish to delegate their representation must do so through the Company website (www.abertis.com), with an electronic national identity card or an electronic certificate by following the instructions for this purpose that are specified in the Company website.

In order to prove their identity, shareholders wishing to delegate by electronic means must prove their identity by means of an electronic national identity card or an electronic certificate, in accordance with the instructions set out in the section "Ordinary General Meeting 2021/Electronic Delegation" of the aforesaid website.

The delegation in writing and the electronic delegations must be made at least one day before the date stated for the Meeting, therefore, before 00:01 a.m. on 19th April, 2021.

In the event that no precise instructions are given, it shall be assumed that the proxy representative will vote in favour of the proposals on the agenda. The proxy may represent more than one shareholder without limitation as to the number of shareholders represented and may cast different votes in accordance with the instructions given by each shareholder.

In the event that no instructions are given due to matters not included on the agenda or no voting instructions have been given regarding proposals not formulated by the Board of Directors, the proxy representative shall vote in the manner he/she deems most convenient for the interests of the Company and of the shareholder he/she represents.

Any proxy which does not state the representative to whom it is granted, shall be deemed to be granted to the Chairman of the Board of Directors.

The physical attendance of a shareholder to the Meeting shall revoke any delegation that he/she may have made previously, as well as the disposal of his/her shares of which the Company was aware at least five days prior to the date of the Meeting. Likewise, the delegation shall always be revocable by the same means by which it was made.

3.- Vote.

Shareholders with the right of attendance may cast their vote in person by attending the General Meeting (physically or by telematic means) or may cast a remote vote by the following means:

(i) By post:

In order to exercise the right to vote remotely by this means, the shareholder shall send the attendance card duly filled in and signed in the space reserved for voting, to the registered office, Corporate Governance Department, Abertis Infraestructuras, S.A., Paseo de la Castellana, 39 Madrid.

(ii) By electronic means:

Shareholders with the right of attendance may also exercise their right to vote electronically. To do so, shareholders must have an electronic national identity card or a recognized, valid and in force electronic certificate, in accordance with the provisions of Law 6/2020, of November 11, regulating certain aspects of reliable electronic services.

Electronic votes must be cast through the company's website (www.abertis.com), and by following the instructions for this purpose that are specified in each of the screens of the program drawn up for the exercise thereof.

Shareholders wishing to vote by electronic means must prove their identity through an electronic national identity card or an electronic certificate, in accordance with the instructions set out in the section "Ordinary General Meeting 2021/Electronic Vote" of the aforesaid website.

Remote voting must be received by the Company at least one day prior to the date scheduled for the Meeting, therefore, before 00:01 a.m. on 19th April, 2021.

Shareholders who cast their vote in the aforementioned terms shall be deemed to be present for the purposes of constituting the meeting. Consequently, proxies issued previously shall be deemed revoked and those granted subsequently shall be deemed not to have been granted.

Any shareholder who casts his/her vote by post or by electronic means without making a mark in any or none of the checkboxes intended to indicate his/her vote in respect of the items on the agenda, shall be deemed to vote in favour of the respective proposals. Unless otherwise specified, the Chairman of the Board of Directors shall be deemed to be the proxy representative, in relation to the proposed resolutions not drawn up by the Board of Directors or on the items not included on the agenda. The rules regarding shareholders' representation shall also apply to the vote.

Any remote votes cast shall be annulled by the physical attendance at the Meeting of the shareholder that has issued said votes, or by the disposal of their shares of which the Company has knowledge at least five days before the date set for the Meeting.

The Company reserves the right to amend, suspend, cancel or restrict the electronic voting and/or delegation mechanisms when required or imposed due to technical reasons or security concerns.

The Company shall not be liable for any damages that may be caused by overload, breakdowns, damage to lines, connection faults or similar occurrences beyond its control which temporarily prevent the use of the electronic delegation systems and/or voting by electronic means.

EXCEPTIONAL MEASURES IN CONNECTION WITH THE 2021 ORDINARY GENERAL MEETING ADOPTED ON THE OCCASION OF THE COVID-19 PANDEMIC: TELEMATIC ATTENDANCE.

Pursuant to the provisions set on article 3 of Royal Decree-Law 34/2020 of 17 November on Urgent Measures to Support Business Solvency and the Energy Sector, and on Tax Matters, it is hereby informed that, in view of the different restrictions and recommendations of the public authorities in relation to the circulation and meetings of multiple persons and in order to safeguard the general interests, health and safety of the shareholders, employees and other persons involved in the preparation and holding of the General Meeting, it has been agreed that the attendance to this General Meeting may also be carried out through the use of telematic means that duly guarantee the identity of the attendant.

Telematic attendance to the General Meeting shall be subject to the procedure indicated in this notice, which may be supplemented and developed on the Company's website (www.abertis.com). Telematic attendance to the General Meeting is set up as an extraordinary and additional measure to the different channels already made available to the Company's shareholders to participate in the General Meeting.

Shareholders may attend by telematic means from any device with internet access (including cell phones and tablets) through the space "Ordinary General Meeting 2021 / Telematic attendance" on the Company's website (www.abertis.com) available on the corporate website space on the Ordinary General Shareholders' Meeting, which will be operational as from 10 a.m. on the day the Meeting is held, that is, on the 20th April, 2021, on a single call.

Shareholders attending by telematic means will be able to follow the entire Meeting, which will be retransmitted in real time through the Company's website (www.abertis.com).

For this purpose, shareholders wishing to attend the General Shareholder's Meeting by telematic means must hold individually or collectively 1,000 or more shares. Likewise, before the Meeting and no later than 12:00 hours on the Meeting's date, shareholders wishing to attend the Meeting by telematic means shall be registered through the "Telematic attendance" section, proving their identity by an electronic national identity card or a recognized, valid and in force electronic certificate, in accordance with the provisions of Law 6/2020, of November 11, regulating certain aspects of reliable electronic services, together with a scanned copy of the Attendance Card issued by their bank, and follow the instructions described in the aforementioned section of the Company's website.

Shareholders attending by telematic means and intending to intervene at the General Meeting must request to do so at the time of registration by following the instructions contained in the aforementioned section of the Company's website. Once this request has been done, the interventions may be made in writing through the form that will be available in the indicated section of the Company's website until the General Shareholders' Meeting is convened.

In the event that the shareholder wishes his/her intervention to appear literally in the minutes of the meeting, he/she shall expressly state so on the aforementioned intervention form.

Requests for information or clarifications from shareholders attending by telematic means shall be answered verbally during the General Meeting or in writing, by the Chairman or Secretary of the Board of Directors, within seven days following the meeting.

Duly registered shareholders attending by telematic means may cast their vote through the website and in accordance with the corresponding voting form, from the constitution of the General Shareholders' Meeting. Voting time for shareholders attending by telematic means shall be open until 1:15 p.m. on the day the meeting is held or at such later time as may be indicated by the Chairman of the General Shareholders' Meeting.

For all purposes, the shareholder's telematic attendance shall be equivalent to attendance in person at the General Meeting.

Physical attendance of the shareholder to the General Meeting will render attendance by telematic means ineffective.

The Company shall not be liable for any damages that may be caused to the shareholder or representative arising from the occasional unavailability of its web page, as well as any other failure in the connection or any other eventuality of the same or similar nature, beyond the Company's control, without prejudice to the adoption of the measures that each situation may require, including the possible temporary suspension or extension of the General Shareholders' Meeting.

PERSONAL DATA PROTECTION

In accordance with the provisions of the National and European Regulations in force on the Protection of Personal Data, data of a personal nature on the shareholders and, where applicable, on their representatives, provided to the Company by said shareholders, their representatives or by the banks, companies and stockbrokers in which said shareholders have deposited their shares, via the entity legally authorized to draw up the accounts entries (Iberclear), shall be saved in a file under the responsibility of Abertis Infraestructuras, S.A., for the purpose of managing the development, fulfilment and monitoring of the relationship with its shareholders. The aforementioned data will be communicated to the Notary in relation to the drawing up of the notarial deed of the General Shareholders' Meeting and can be passed on to third parties supporting the right to information laid down by Law, or be accessible to the general public, to the extent that they are reflected in the documentation available on the website www.abertis.com or arised at the General Shareholders' Meeting.

The entire General Meeting shall be recorded and disseminated via the Abertis Infraestructuras, S.A. website (www.abertis.com). Attendance of the General Shareholders' Meeting implies that attendees have given their consent to the recording and dissemination of their image.

The shareholders are also hereby informed of the possibility of exercising their right of access, rectification, cancellation, opposition, limitation of processing, portability and any other rights recognized in the national and European Regulations on Data Protection in force by writing to Abertis Infraestructuras, S.A., Paseo de la Castellana, 39, 28046, Madrid (Ref. Personal data), indicating the right which they are exercising by attaching a copy of their ID or substitute identification document.

NOTARY INTERVENTION

The Board of Directors has agreed to require the presence of a Notary to attend the Shareholders' General Meeting and to draft the minutes of the meeting in accordance with the provisions of article 203 of the Law on Capital Companies.

In Madrid, on this 9th day of March 2021.

The Secretary of the Board of Directors
Mr. Miquel Roca i Junyent
